ARTILLERY DUELS ON FRENCH FRONT

French Preparing to Make An Attack at Verdun.

German Attempt to Attack Rheims is Broken Up

Artillery Activity in The Ypres District Is Heavy.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Along the French front the artillery duels have been vigorous at many points. The activity was marked north of Verdun where the French are apparently preparing for an attack to recover a few trenches which the Crown Prince's troops retained yesterday when the main attacking force was thrown back north of Hill No. 344.

A German attempt to attack east of Rheims was broken up by the French artillery.

Field Marshal Haig's dispatches from Flanders have again become laconic and the only recent break in their brevity having been in the messages describing the German counter attacks which failed to shake the British hold.

Today the British commander merely records the continuation of artillery activity east of Ypres.

The crowd cheered the promise wildly.

The Premier had just completed a tour of the area damaged in the raids with Viscount French, commander of the home forces.

An official inquiry developed that the collision was unavoidable, the vessels coming together during a heavy rain storm. No blame was placed on either crew.

EQUIPPED FOR BATTLE WITH THE ELEMENTS

The old saying, "When it rains it pours," is said to be particularly true in France. Uncle Sam has seen to that his boys at the front will not suffer needlessly from this particular meteorological fact. What the "Sammy's" do when it pours in France is illustrated by the above official French photograph. Here American soldiers are shown at their training camp arrayed in slickers and seated on a motor truck.

Congress, in the meantime, amended the rate law so that no increase may become effective for a term of years without approval of the commission.

Thus a final closing of the case may be postponed. The suspended rates proposed increases from eastern cities to intermountain territory on agricultural implements, canned goods, clothing, cotton, glass, hardware, iron, and steel, leather, machinery, paper and books, tobacco and a long list of minor articles.

The state industrial commission has asked Attorney General Joseph McGhee for an opinion on the matter. The liability companies in question had provisions in their policies making the policies renewable automatically upon payment of premiums by concerns.

Briefs have been filed with the attorney general by former Governor Judson Harmon, representing the companies, and by George B. Okey and former Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan, representing the Federation of Labor.

Even worse damage is reported in the rural districts. Many villages between Kyoto and Osaka have been inundated by overflowing rivers and it is feared considerable loss of life resulted.

The number of injured is 168 and 1,346 houses were demolished. Telegraph and telephone service and railway traffic were stopped.

SEPARATE PEACE TALK IS DENIED

Von Kuehlmann Makes Official Statement Denying Rumors.

No Peace Offer Made to Either France or Great Britain.

(Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, October 3.—Germany has made no proposals whatever for a separate peace either to France or Great Britain. Dr. von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, makes this announcement, according to an official statement received here from Berlin in answering the speech of General Verkhovsky, the Russian minister of war before the Democratic Congress in Petrograd.

"I herewith state that Germany has made no proposals whatever for a separate peace either to France or Great Britain," concludes the statement by Dr. von Kuehlmann.

Last month reports were circulated in Russia that France and Great Britain had received offers from Germany of a separate peace, at the expense of Russia. They became so insistent that the Russian government obtained from France and Great Britain formed demands that they would make peace with Germany to the detriment of Russia.

The Russian minister of war made this announcement before the Democratic Congress September 28.

The reported statement of the Russian minister of war as regards Alsace-Lorraine had not been received previously in this country.

When Skinner hit the front doorstep he had to hurdle a truck-load of trains, baseball paraphernalia, riding horses and other implements of juvenile warfare, for the bunch certainly put a brown crust on anything they cooked up.

And nobody but Honey, Skinner and the officiating Doc knew that the "Stork Limited" was running behind the schedule. Then sad to relate the man of the hour discovered that admission to his own celebration was by card only, and his invitation had been misplaced. He was playing the lead in "Ousted from His Own Fireside."

CAMP STORIES EXTRAORDINARY NOTES FROM CAMP

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, October

3.—There usually is very little said about officers that would make them feel bad, but the regular army non-commissioned officers, who, by the bye are not enthusiastic about these young fellows who were schooled at Fort Benjamin Harrison, tell some good stories on them now and then. These regular army men are not enthusiastic about the new National army anyway, so perhaps that is some ground for the tales they relate since coming here to aid as instructors.

Some of the reserve officers have had little military training and this is one that was told on a medical corps lieutenant who had just reached camp.

He was walking along toward a group of the regular army non-coms, who stood at attention on his approach. As the officer drew near, they came to salute in the snappy regular army "one-two."

The Lieutenant, so the story goes, hesitated but did not return the courtesy. He halted and smiled. The soldiers still stood at attention. Smiling broadly the Lieutenant took off his hat with a sweep of the arm, bowed low, and said:

"Gentlemen, I thank you, I thank you!"

Soldiers at this military reservation are beginning to wonder a bit if there was not "method in the madness" when the authorities made a rule forbidding bus service inside of Camp Sherman. Only taxicabs, charging 25 cents for a ride to Chillicothe, are permitted inside the post and a soldier at $30 a month cannot afford many such luxuries unless he is "endowed," as the troopers term it.

So they are beginning to believe that when the order was made, there was back of it a desire on the part of the officers higher up that the men remain in camp instead of making trips to Chillicothe.

There is amusement aplenty inside the camp, even though it is not yet up to standard.

By doing away with the jitney busses it means either walk to town, pay 25 cents for a ride, or else stay at home. So a great majority stay at home. Instead of loafing about Chillicothe streets, the men put in their time by writing letters, reading books, hearing talks and lectures, studying drill manuals or sleeping. Spare time is availing something.

So, whether there was another motive other than that of "preventing congestion and accidents" in barring the jitney bus from the military roads inside the camp, most of the civilian-troopers are getting benefits from staying at home that they would not get if they spent their spare time in town.

THOUSANDS SALOONS QUIT BUSINESS IN N. Y.

By American Press

New York, Oct. 3.—Unable to cope with the multiplicity of federal and state taxes and the increased cost of all intoxicants, 1,000 saloons and retail stores in Greater New York have closed their doors, according to estimates made by excise officials. When the license fee of $1,500, which must be paid in advance, became due, hundreds of places failed to open their doors.

In smaller cities, the operation of the state law providing that after Sept. 30 there could be only one saloon to every 500 inhabitants in political subdivisions having less than 55,000 population, will result in closing some 1,500 saloons in the state this month, according to William Mc Clenahan, president of the Retail Liquor Dealers' association. If the present situation continues, Mr. Mc Clenahan says 3,000 saloons in the state will have to close their doors in the next six months.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO DEVISE PLANS FOR WORK IN CITY

An interesting meeting of the bankers and business men was held Wednesday afternoon, at which the following committee was named to devise ways and means for conducting the campaign for the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds in Washington: Horace C. This committee will report to the steering committee at a session to be held at the Midland Bank Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, at which time it is expected plans will be perfected for the work in Washington.

The committee in charge of the work in the remainder of Fayette county will prepare letters for forwarding to citizens in general, and will be actively engaged from now until the full amount of bonds are taken.

The Bankers, it was pointed out, are simply the trustees of the people and these bonds must be subscribed by the people, in order that Fayette may keep her rightful place among her sister counties and do her duty.

The Mastery With the Allies

The superiority, in numbers, in artillery, in morale and every element that goes to make up an offensive fighting force has passed from the Germans for all time.

Unable to win the war in one savage rush against an unprepared and unadvised foe the German morale has been gradually wearing away. The inauguration of new campaigns of frightfulness, bombing of hospitals filled with the helpless wounded and nurses, torpedoing without warning ships carrying wounded soldiers, sinking ships of neutral and friendly nations, air raids against the non-combatants far in the interior, inconsequential gains against the disorganized Russians—no one of these nor all of these, has proved sufficient to revive the waning spirit of the German army.

In Flanders, at Verdun and on the Isonzo front the mastery of offensive fighting is with the armies under General Haig, General Petain and General Cadorna.

The German forces, though clearly mastered, are not yet defeated. They hold stubbornly to their defensive positions.

The fact that once dislodged and driven back from their offensive positions, the Germans are unable to recover any of the lost territory is most conclusive proof of the mastery which the British, French and Italians have secured.

True the gains are not so sweeping in territorial extent as those in the east which Germany has made against Russia but in the west every half mile gained is of more consequence than thousands of square miles in the east.

Coal Prospects Brighter

Coal dealers, large and small, and national and state officials, too, are much more hopeful of conditions and prospects than they were a few weeks ago.

Local dealers, everywhere are confident now, unless there is a departure from arrangements at present announced, that they will be able to meet the demands of consumers.

Further shipments of coal to Canadian points have been stopped and the vast quantities which have been shipped across Ohio to lake points will now be consigned to the north-west and to local markets.

One wholesome rule which has been established is that which absolutely forbids reconsignments.

Much of the trouble last winter was caused by the abuse of the reconsignment privilege.

Speculators tied up immense quantities of coal on the railroads by reconsigning it to fictitious addressees, thus keeping the coal markets unsupplied and the railroad lines congested with freight and railroad cars filled with coal so there was no way to ship even from the mines. All that menace, under the new order of things is to be done away with and the relief should be marked.

The Italian Offensive

The attention of the world has been so closely held by the tremendous happenings on the western battle fronts in Flanders and at Verdun that we have not appreciated fully the great successes of the Italians on the Isonzo front.

For weeks now Austria has been sending appeals for help to Berlin but those appeals have been unheeded. So long as Austria alone was menaced the German general staff believing that it had all it could do to hold back the British and French offensives.

During the past few days, however, the German general staff has awakened to a realization of the danger which many close observers have seen for some time—the possibility that the armies of the allies may cut in behind the Germans and attack from the rear.

Germany, once appreciating that danger, has at last harked to the appeals for help and is rushing troops from the east to re-inforce the Austrians.

Poetry For Today

THE LIKE O' HIM
Young men a-plenty have passed the door.
Broad in the shoulder and strong of limb,
But never my two eyes saw before
The like o' him.The drummers and fifers woke the town,
The lads are leanin' from roofs and trees,
And the girls came swarnin' up and down
The like o' bees.I stood by the hedge to watch them pass,
Laughin' and lookin' the way they came,
The sunshine glintin' on steel and brass
The like o' flame.And himself looked down as I looked up—
'Twas first he went in the marchin' line,
And the light of his eyes might fill a cup
The like o' wine.A proper lot are soldierin' men—
Plenty I've seen of them, tall and trim,
But faith, I'll not be seein' again
The like o' him.He's fit for ladies in silken gowns
And well I know, if he turns to see,
There's fifty girls in as many towns
The like o' me.Ah, well, the hedges are comin' green
I'm walking out with Terry and Tim,
Walkin'—and wishin' I'd never seen
The like o' him.

WANTS IT ALL SO
HE CAN HAVE EATS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, Oct. 3.—A Cleveland claimant, whose name was not made public, but who recently was granted an award by the state industrial commission for the loss of his right hand, now wants the entire amount of the award given to him in a lump sum so that he may employ some person to help him dress and cut his food.

In a communication to the commission, this claimant stated that on action of the war department on the suggestion that the remaining 7,000,000 registered men be examined immediately and classified for service in order that they may have knowledge of when to expect a call to the colors and arrange their affairs accordingly, awaits action by Congress on the war deficiency bill. Funds to carry on the project are contained in that measure. Secretary Baker said that of some 35 governors who had been asked if they believed it wise and expedient to proceed with the examination of all registered men, only two had opposed the plan. Those two did so on the ground that it would make too great a demand on the time of the examining boards, virtually all the members of which are serving without pay.

THE FRENCH AIR 'PLANES BOMB BADEN

(By Associated Press Cable)

Paris, October 3.—Continuing their reprisals for attacks of German airmen on French cities, French aviators last night dropped bombs on the German town of Baden, the war office announces.

The town of Baden in the Grand Duchy of the same name, is one of the most famous and beautiful watering places of Europe, best known for its medicinal baths. It has a population of 15,000 and is 55 miles from the French border.

FIRE FIEND CLAIMS MANY OHIO PEOPLE

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Columbus, O., October 3.—The fire fiend takes a heavy toll of life in Ohio each year, according to a report just made by Dr. J. E. Menger, state registrar of vital statistics. The report shows that conflagrations and burns caused 458 deaths in Ohio in 1916. The year before there were 433. Such fatalities, the report shows, are heaviest in November, December and January.

Major General Pershing reported the death from natural causes of Captain Marvin E. Mallory, Greenwood, Ind., at a Paris hospital.

Francisco Villa and band of followers captured the town of Rosario, Durango, Mexico.

William Jennings Bryan purchased eight $50 Liberty bonds, one for each of his grandchildren.

Every Tuesday hereafter will be beefless day in all dining cars on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburgh.

Charles J. Hexamer resigned as president of the National German-American Alliance because of failing health.

William and Robert Blackwell, under death sentence for murder, escaped from jail at Pensacola, Fla., during the recent hurricane.

WOULD GERMAN "KULTUR" HAVE RESPONDED?

Behind the British Lines in France, October 3—(Associated Press Correspondence)—A German airplane was brought down in the British lines this week after a battle lasting nearly an hour. The next morning a German machine came hovering over the same spot and maneuvered for a position. It was promptly attacked, but returned to the German lines after dropping overboard something which was seen to fall near an evacuated village.

Two British soldiers who were sent to find out what had been dropped, returned with a beautiful wreath nearly three feet in diameter. To the wreath was attached a note asking the British airmen to place it on the grave of the dead pilot.

"The officer you have buried was my brother," said the note. "I spent six happy years working in a London bank. I know you honor the dead. Please do this little service for me." The wreath was deposited as requested on the grave of the dead German airman.

DAIRY SHOW IS TO BE WORTH WHILE $40,000 IN PRIZES

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Columbus, O., October 3.—Importance of conserving food products and of consuming perishable edibles so that wheat and other non-perishable foods may be sent across the Atlantic to feed our allies and our army, will be shown by huge exhibits and will be the big message—the keynote—of the eleventh annual National Dairy Show which will be held at the state fair grounds here for ten days, beginning October 18.

Herbert C. Hoover, the national food administrator, has been asked to be the principal speaker at the show, and tell what Americans are doing and what they can do by conservation and preparation of food to assist in winning the war. Conservation of food and food resources will be urged in most of the exhibits.

For the first time, the federal department of agriculture will send specialists to the show to lecture on food economy and conservation. One federal exhibit, costing $25,000 to install, will demonstrate the manufacture of by-products from milk. The exhibit will show thousands of gallons of skimmed milk, now wasted annually, can be conserved into nourishing foods.

Another exhibit will show that the milk from one good cow during the life of that cow is equal in food value.

HINDENBURG'S NATAL DAY CELEBRATION

(By American Press)

Amsterdam, Oct. 3.—Friend Marsha Von Hindenburg's seventieth birthday was celebrated throughout Germany as a national fete. The emperor and all the imperial family sent greetings to the field marshal, expressing the hope that an early end of the war would crown his work.

"Feed yourself and your family," must be the slogan for patriotic Ohio housewives.

Canning, preserving and drying are first duties. Beans, for example, are so plentiful this year that many tons will go to waste unless they are conserved in some way.

Canning and drying offer the best ways. Here's how to can wax, stringless and green beans:

String or hull. Blanch in live steam for 5 to 10 minutes, or from 2 to 5 minutes in boiling water. Remove and dip quickly in cold water. Pack in hot jars and add boiling water until jars are full. Add one level teaspoon of salt to each quart. Put on rubbers and caps, but not tightly. Place cans in hot water which covers them 2 or 3 inches. Boil for two hours and finish sealing immediately, making sure there is no leakage.

To dry beans: Wash carefully and string. Cut or cut them lengthwise into pieces $\frac{1}{4}$ to 1 inch long. If young and tender dry them whole. Blanch 6 to 10 minutes. After blanching, dip quickly in cold water, then drain thoroughly to remove surface moisture. Dry young beans two hours; mature ones, three hours. Start with heat of 110 degrees F., and raise gradually to 145 degrees.

INVOLVED HIGHER UP IN TANGLE

(By American Press)

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—State Senator Edwin H. Vare was named as the man higher up who was to furnish the money to bring gun men from New York for election work in the Fifth ward here on primary day, Sept. 19, when a policeman was killed. Congressman William S. Vare, the senator's brother, was named as giving assurance that the money would be forthcoming from Isaac Deutsch, the man who is alleged to have engaged the gangsters.

The Vare brothers, who have made names in city contracts, were brought into the case through sensational testimony by Samuel G. Maloney at a hearing given to Mayor Thomas B. Smith and eight others charged with conspiracy to murder and other crimes in connection with the Fifth ward killing. Altogether 17 men are under arrest here and in New York in connection with the political Maloney, a former Republican factional leader in the Fifth ward and now head of the local branch of the Val O'Farrell detective agency, was the star witness at the hearing.

Senator Vare, who, with his brother, the congressman, is the leader of the faction opposed to that headed by United States Senator Boise Penrose and State Senator James P. McNichol in this city, gave out a statement in which he said that everything Maloney swore to, so far as it concerned the Vares, was an "absolute lie" and is only part of the general frame-up he has been making.

Hundreds of the fine draft and light utility and society horses are being entered for a horse show, to be held in connection with the dairy show. There will be a nightly horse fair in the $250,000 coliseum which the state of Ohio built especially for the exposition.

Nearly $40,000 in prizes will be offered for cattle and horse exhibitors.

Farm machinery exhibits will fill seven of the large buildings at the fair grounds. In addition there will be a tractor, motor truck and automobile display.

Prior to Maloney's recital of alleged conditions in the Fifth ward, Isadore Stern, a member of the legislature from that ward, told how he had warned Mayor Smith the night before the primary on the long-distance telephone of possible bloodshed; how he had engaged a special train to bring the mayor from Atlantic City for the purpose of restoring order, and how the mayor replied that Stern could not "pull any stuff like that over on him."

Although intended for use in connection with boys' and girls' club work, a copy may be had on request to the Agricultural College Extension Service, Columbus, Ohio.

FARM NOTES

Conserve Pork; Swat Cholera

With a gradual but certain diminution of our meat supply in proportion to the population the soaring prices for live hogs the foreign demand and the increasing probability of as high or higher prices for some time to come the Ohio farmer will find it not only highly profitable but a patriotic duty to conserve the health of his meat-producing animals.

Much can be accomplished if the same individual attention is given to the preservation of the health of livestock as is given to the cultivation of crops.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substance for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel, his efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lary feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR COMPANY M

From the last issue of "The Rainbow Reveille," published in the interests of the 166th Regiment, Rainbow Division, the following article is taken, describing the new trench equipment issued to the soldiers of the division which includes Company M, of this city:

It's no small task to provide transportation across the ocean for a division of soldiers. Every pound of equipment that can be reduced contributes that much more to efficiency. With this in view, orders are going out to cut down the excess baggage. Each man will be allowed to take the following clothing: barrack bag, shelter half, three blankets, one overcoat, one waist belt, one service hat, two woolen shirts, two pairs of shoes, two O. D. coats, two O. D. breeches, three woolen undershirts, three woolen underdraws, five pairs of socks and one hat cord.

"One step in the efficiency program with regard to equipment has been the doing away with the old system of a haversack and blanket roll and the happy substitution of a back pack, that is strapped on the shoulders and is much easier to handle than the old system of equipment.

Possibility of cold rations in the trenches is indicated by the bacon and coffee cans which have just been issued. The entire equipment is being made as compact and serviceable as possible. It has been figured out that it costs Uncle Sam over $151 to equip each soldier for service."

MAJOR R. G. ALLEN'S BATTALION PRAISED

Major Rell G. Allen's Battalion of the old Fourth Regiment is probably the best battalion in the organization according to newspaper reports from New York, which praise the work of Major Allen and his men who recently gave a series of drills.

The New York Herald in a recent issue, states that the "First Battalion under the command of Major Rell G. Allen, made a favorable impression."

So far as known the troops are still located at Mineola, but may move at any time.

TROOP TRAINS GO THROUGH THE CITY

A number of troop trains passed through this city Wednesday, carrying men to Camp Sherman.

Three of these trains came in over the Wellston Division of the B. & O., while other trains came in over the Midland Division of the B. & O., and transferred to the C. H. & D. at this point.

The men on all of the trains appeared in good spirits, and yelled and waved at all who chanced to be near the track.

CINCINNATIAN GETS BACK HIS OLD AMBITION

Sleeps Soundly Every Night Since Taking Tanlac and Gets Up in Mornings With a Lot of Energy.

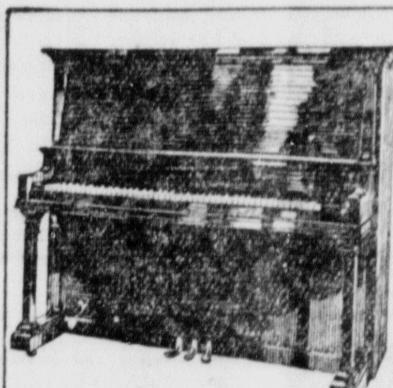

William H. Adams, 72, 937 Clark street, Cincinnati, O. connected with the Casualty Department in the Cincinnati office of the Columbus Mutual Insurance Co., for seventeen years, goes to bed at night and gets refreshing sleep.

"But it wasn't always that way," Mr. Adams said. "Before I started taking Tanlac I couldn't sleep at all and I got up in mornings with not much more ambition than a kitten should have. Tanlac fixed me up, though, and after a good night's sleep now I just feel like I had unlimited energy in mornings.

"My stomach was out of order, too, before I took Tanlac. Food disagreed with me so much that I had to live on a light diet. I was very nervous and trivial matters worried me a lot.

Tanlac has put my stomach back in shape. My appetite has come back and what I eat now agrees with me. I'm not so nervous as I was before.

"When a medicine helps a man of my age as much as Tanlac has helped me I think there's a lot of credit due it. So I'm recommending Tanlac."

That is the test we want you to apply to the one-ton Maxwell truck—its first cost—and its operating cost.

A Maxwell truck—which is a REAL truck, worm-driven—sells at a price that can not be met in any other motor vehicle of like efficiency, durability, and economy.

A Maxwell truck will cover 100 miles in a work day—twice the distance covered by two teams and two drivers.

It will do this at an operating cost of less than that of one team of horses.

Moreover, it is of a size and capacity adapted to the needs of almost every form and phase of commerce, industry, or farming.

The question is not, "Can I afford to have a Maxwell truck?"

The FACT is, Mr. Business Man, you can not afford to be without one.

MEN DEPART FOR TRAINING CAMP

Many Citizens Assemble to Bid

Farewell to Splendid Young Men Who Left Today to Defend the Nation's Honor and Maintain Liberty for Humanity.

A large number of friends and relatives of the twenty-two young men forming Fayette's third contingent to leave for training camp, assembled at the Union Station Wednesday morning to bid-farewell to the men and to wish them God-speed and a safe return to their homes and loved ones at the earliest possible moment.

The young men assembled at the appointed hour and marched to the station, under the direction of the Local Board, and the Member in Charge, Elliott Jefferson.

At the station they were checked off and it was ascertained that every man was in his place. Most of them were eager to start on their new life in the military camp.

The last few moments before the train arrived was a trying one to all and there was scores of wet eyes as the train pulled in and the young men represented the flower of Fayette county's manhood, stepped aboard the train and took their departure.

Most of the men were warmly dressed and carried a small amount of extra clothing with them. Few white collars were visible, as the men had been warned of the discomforts of such apparel. Most of the men wore soft shirts, and serviceable clothing. A number of sweaters were in evidence, as well as comfortable shoes, so that the group was probably the best equipped for military life of any contingent leaving the county for the camp.

No alternates were at the station as there was no available list of men from which to choose alternates. One man, who had not reported Tuesday afternoon, had returned from a visit to his father, and the full quota of 22 is now in Camp Sherman.

POST EXCHANGES
AT CAMP RECEIVE
GOODS FROM HERE

It is not generally known that the numerous post exchanges of the Ohio training camp at Chillicothe are receiving their supplies of general merchandise from The Dahl-Campbell Branch in this city, but such is the case.

The big wholesale firm here has the order for supplying general merchandise in large quantities to the post exchanges, or camp stores, and this, with the other extensive business of the firm at Chillicothe, makes it necessary to keep the fleet of trucks running night and day, with less important shipments by rail when necessary.

SIMEON JOLLY DEAD

Simeon Jolly, well known and respected citizen of Greene county, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Huffman, just off the Spring Valley and Painterville pike at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday. Death was due to the infirmities of old age and Mr. Jolly had been confined to his bed for the last three weeks.

Mr. Jolly was born in Xenia, 82 years ago last February 21st. He was the son of James Gowdy Jolly and Sarah McClellan Jolly. In 1880 he moved to the farm where he had since made his home. His wife preceded him in death almost eleven years, she being called by death on October 26, 1906.

Mr. Jolly was survived by only one child, Mrs. C. A. Huffman, with whom he made his home. He also leaves two half sisters, Mrs. Mellie Hammer, of Washington C. H., and Mrs. Sarah Stewart, of Covington, Ky.—Xenia Gazette.

These farms are all in first-class condition with good improvements.

We also have a number of tracts both large and small in adjoining counties.
